

David Rudnik

National Surety Director

David Rudnik is national surety director at M3 Insurance, serving as one of the agency's in-house surety experts and advisors. David brings more than 35 years of relationships, expertise, and experience in surety underwriting to this role.

Prior to joining M3, David was president of Rudnik Surety, Inc., a surety exclusive bonding agency. He began his career in the industry in 1985 and steadily grew the agency to over 300 contractors representing 21 sureties on a national basis. His primary focus was on providing unique business development & risk management services to new and emerging contractors needed to support their growth plans. Rudnik Surety, Inc. was acquired by M3 on February 1, 2020.

David completed undergraduate studies at Hamline University in St. Paul Minnesota. He is a member of the National Association of Surety Bond Producers (NASBP) and the National Veterans Small Business Coalition (NVSBC) and a prior board member of the Minnesota Association of Women Contractors. In addition, David is a frequent speaker for various trade and industry associations.

David has served on committees and been an active member of the Greater Twin Cities United Way.
